

Tiffany M. Moore
Assistant U.S. Trade Representative
Intergovernmental Affairs and Public Liaison

Appointed in May 2006, Ms. Moore leads domestic outreach efforts to state and local governments, the business and agricultural communities, labor, environmental and consumer groups. She is also responsible for improving the public's understanding of U.S. trade policies through education and strategic communications initiatives. In addition, her office manages the U.S. trade advisory committee system.

Since April 2005, Ms. Moore has served as Director of Government Relations for Kellogg Company. She joined the government relations team at Kellogg Company in January 2003 as a manager and was promoted to associate director in September 2004. Ms. Moore directed Kellogg Company's federal legislative agenda, including their trade portfolio. Before joining Kellogg, Ms. Moore served as legislative director to Congressman Fred Upton (R-MI) and advised him on trade matters before the U.S. Congress.

Ms. Moore earned her bachelor's degree in Spanish Language and Literature from Western Michigan University and her master's degree in International Affairs from The George Washington University in Washington, DC.

Ms. Moore, born in Detroit, Michigan, currently resides in the Washington, DC.

About the Office of the United States Trade Representative: Under the leadership of Ambassador Susan C. Schwab, The Office of the United States Trade Representative (USTR) is an agency of over 200 people, a highly committed group of professionals who have decades of specialized experience in trade issues and regions of the world. They negotiate directly with foreign governments to create trade agreements, resolve disputes and participate in global trade policy organizations. They also meet with governments, business groups, legislators and public interest groups to gather input on trade issues and explain the president's trade policy positions. The agency was founded in 1962 and has offices in Geneva and Brussels.